

eMazzanti Technologies Continues Climb on List of World's Top Managed Services Providers

eMazzanti moves up 10 spots to 140th in the 2017 MSPmentor global ranking of the top managed services providers (MSPs)

Hoboken, NJ -- (Cision) June 14, 2017 – eMazzanti Technologies, a NYC area MSP and IT consultant, continued its climb up Penton Technology's MSPmentor501 list that ranks the world's top managed services providers (MSPs).

According to MSPmentor's June 13 announcement, eMazzanti Technologies improved 10 spots from their 2016 ranking to 140th on the 2017 MSPmentor 501 Global Edition, an annual ranking of the world's top 501 managed services providers.

Since its first appearance on the list, eMazzanti Technologies has improved its ranking on the list every year, rising 41 spots since 2013. The MSPmentor501 ranking is the IT channel's largest and most comprehensive list of leading managed service provider (MSP) organizations worldwide.

"With the accelerated pace of business, companies are finding that managed services, including security, cloud and revenue-enhancing strategies make them more competitive," said Jennifer Mazzanti, CEO, eMazzanti Technologies, "eMazzanti's strong commitment to our customers' success is reflected in our improved ranking on the MSPmentor501."

To qualify for the 2017 MSP 501, candidates submitted confidential applications that included their 2016 financial results. MSPs were also asked to provide verification of revenues from a certified financial professional.

The 2017 MSP 501 list and survey hinges on a revised methodology that assigns different weights to revenues by source. The methodology relies on an algorithm that evaluates company strength based on revenue contributions from various business activities.

The companies on the 2017 MSP 501 list reported a combined total of $14.52 billion in revenue (based on 2016 results), up 15% from the previous year. In an effort to encourage honest and robust participation, MSPmentor does not disclose specific annual revenue information (i.e., revenue dollars).
